Produce bad effects upon persons. They acquire a dul, silly, histesse embarrased and sad exterior. They became indoent, average to an incapable of all intellectual exertion. All presence of mind desertatem, they are discountenanced, troubled, unquiet whenever in comrany, are taken by surprise and alarmed at almost anything, their feebles souls succumb to the slightest whenever in comrany, are taken by surprise and alarmed at almost anything, their feebles souls succumb to the slightest whenever in course, and almost anything their feebles souls succumb to the slightest with the souls are the surprise and more-every day, previously acquired knowledge is forgotten, the most exquasite intelligence becomes anught, all the vivacity, all the pride intelligence becomes anught, all the vivacity all the pride intelligence becomes anught, all the vivacity all the pride intelligence becomes anught, all the vivacity all the pride intelligence becomes anught, all the rappet of the print forsake them, the power of the imagination is at an end. All that is trouble and misfortune in the world seems their portion. Unquietude, dismay, fear, which are their only affections, banish every agreeable sensation from their minds. The last crisis of puel-ancholy and the most frightful suggestions of despair commonly end in hastening the death of these poor unfortunates, or else they fall into complete apacty.

This is rather ablack picture to draw, but it ruthfully represents the feelings of ourse taxed and mentally oppressed apeople. In this beautiful Aberta of ourse one would hardly expect to find it necessary to advertise remedies for overworked and run down constitutions, but it is a fact that people get awfully run down and out of sorts and require good strong tonics.

Simpson's Kidney Pills

Brighten the dulled intellect, change a sad countenance into that of a smile, give the listless person a look and feeling off-life, the alarmed and startled feeling one so often feels disappears, and a clear, bight eye and elastic step foliows the use of Simpson's Kidney Pills.

A new life and new health follows and the previously run follows and the previously run.

A new life and new health follows and the previously run down and worn out person takes on a new lease of life, and thanks the day that he or she was persuaded to use Simpson's Kidney Pills.

A Wonderful Remedy for La Grippe. Y

We have a cure for La Grippe. We don't make extravagant claims for it, but we can refer you by name to dozens of Calgary people who say it's the best thing on the market. They say it cures the worst cases of La Grippe with a few doses. A lady told as the other day that one bottle had cured three cases in her household the previous week.

A member of the N.W.M.P. who had been in bed four days, trying other remedies, used Maclean's Grippe Mixture and was cured with two doses.

Lots of other people use it for every cold they contract, and they say it cures without fail.

Maclean's Grippe Mixture is 50 c-nts a bottle;
